Description

A beautiful small antique sterling silver timepiece boudoir carriage clock. French Movement, hallmarked Chester, Henry Matthews circa 1899. This lovely small antique sterling silver carriage clock has a plain rectangular form on four bun feet retaining the original hinged hallmarked "C" scrolling swing carrying handle. The surface of this carriage clock is plain and unembellished. The white enamel dial is ornamented with black hour Roman numerals, encircled with plain black chapter ring of minute markers. The face of this timepiece is visible through a circular glass 'window' with a plain applied silver border. The hinged door opens to reveal the original French eight-day movement with integral winding key. Hallmarks struck to the side of the clock, and part hallmark to "C" scroll handle. Date hallmark is rubbed. 5ins to top of handle. 2.5ins wide 2ins deep. Price includes UK delivery and insurance.
