Description

A quality antique burr walnut side cabinet on cabriole legs circa 1900-1910. Having a rectangular bookmatch veneered figured walnut top with a herringbone inlay enclosed by a crossbanded border and moulded edge over two fully oak lined handcut dovetailed drawers. Each drawer has a herringbone inlaid edge with brass Dutch drop handles above two figured walnut veneered panelled doors with a crossbanded edge and herringbone inlay. The doors are flanked by canted corners and open to reveal a handy storage space. Raised on a shaped apron and cabriole legs with a shell on the knee this antique side cabinet has been fully restored using traditional methods having a wonderful warm honey colour with striking veneers. Dimensions: Width: 30 1/4 inches - 77cm Height: 22 inches - 56cm Depth: 14 1/4 inches - 36cm
