Description

An excellent inlaid mahogany occasional, or centre, table from the late Victorian period. Well made in solid mahogany and decorated with inlaid detailing. The shaped top and the under-tier are both embellished with fine quality inlaid detailing of floral and musical scenes, further inlaid stringing to the surrounds and roundels to the four corners of the top. The elegant cabriole legs have carved decorations to the knees, are united by under-stretchers and terminate in their original castors. We have had this lovely table sympathetically repolished in our workshops, it is now offered for sale in excellent condition with a great colour and finish. It is ready to go straight into the home.
