Description

A 1920s full hunter pocket watch from Thomas Russell with single albert. The company name of Thomas Russell & Son was established in 1859 when Thomas Russell (who was listed as a watchmaker as early as 1848) handed over the control of the business to Thomas Robert Russell and Alfred Holgate Russell. The company was very well respected and successful and they earned a Royal Warrant, 'Makers to Queen Victoria'... they continued to benefit from this Warrant even after it ceased upon Victoria's death in 1901 although its continued use was only tolerated for a short while. After the partnership split, Thomas Russell continued as the proprietor of the Russell Watch & Chronometer Manufactory and Alfred Russell continued as Thomas Russell & Son. Thomas Russell & Son achieved a Royal Warrant as makers to the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh. In 1881 the company started importing watches from Switzerland, such as the watch we have here... a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch itself measures 53.5mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is "The Russell" model from the Illinois Wat...
