Description

A handsome tall antique Georgian corner cupboard in oak enclosed by an inlaid arched panelled door on splay feet. With attractive inlay and in beautifully figured quarter sawn oak it has an attractive escutcheon and comes with a working lock and key. The door opens to reveal storage inside with shaped shelves. A nice large size, with lovely age and wear. The stand is a later addition, but a very good match in terms of colour and style. It also has a new top section (to the very top). Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Some scuffs and marks commensurate with age. Some small sections of inlay missing. Small split to door. With later top and stand. Dimensions: Width Across Front: 70cm Depth Front to Back Corner : 39cm Depth Edge of Front to Back Corner: 50cm Height: 118cm
