Description

Superb mid 19th.c. French marble top centre table or Gueridon c.1860. Exceptional and original 39¼" diameter ambergris grey/brown marble top featuring a broad shaped edge crisply carved with concentric rings to stop spilt drinks from running over the side. Over a mahogany veneered apron and raised on a particularly good mahogany base with a turned and reeded pedestal on carved tripod legs with scrolling detail and the original wooden castors. Excellent colour and condition, cleaned and polished in our workshops. Dimensions: diameter 39¼", height 29".
