Description

This French 'Bateau Lit' has come directly from a house in the Lot et Garonne, which has been on the site since the 13th Century we understand. It has been restored to go back, but owing to a change in plans it will no longer fit where it was intended. So there is an opportunity to now acquire this lovely clean example which dates from the 19th Century. It takes a standard 4ft by 6ft 3ins mattress, the sizes below are the external measurements. Priced very sensibly for its age and condition it will look good where ever you may want it.
