Description

Pair of early C19th French bronze neo-classical Empire design bronze Tazzas on ormolu-mounted rouge marble bases. Smart pair of patinated bronze shallow-bowl tazzas surmounting well-figured rouge marble block plinth bases. The tazzas with crisply cast detail and retaining a consistent original dark patination throughout. The bodies each with gadrooned detail and cast edge rims and twin loop handles, raised on cast stem socle supports. The rouge marble bases each mounted with a circular ormolu floral design patera to the central front facet, and with a cast moulded decoration above the stepped plinth base. In excellent original condition with no damage or repairs. Superb classical decoration for a mantelpiece or side table. H 10" W 5" D 5" France c.1830
