Description

A truly superb, early Victorian, solid silver bowl. Beautifully proportioned the body of the bowl stands on a circular pedestal foot. It is wonderfully embossed in the 'Abercorn pattern' which enhances the stunning shape of this bowl. The gilded interior of the bowl is a lovely deep golden colour. On the underneath of the foot the clear hallmarks are visible for the London Assay Office with a date mark for 1854, along with the Lion Passant indicating sterling silver. The craftsmanship of the silversmith: John Samuel Hunt, is unmistakable and his maker's marks are also very clear, along with the company name of Hunt & Roskell. As well as being so aesthetically pleasing, this bowl is a good heavy gauge silver and feels nice and solid when picked up. Condition: Despite the age of the item, it is in excellent collector's antique condition. Hallmarks and makers Marks: Hunt & Roskell (John Samuel Hunt). Measurements: Height: 6 cm approx. Diameter width at widest part: 8.4 cm approx. Weight 124 grams
