Description

An attractive mahogany parlour, or display, cabinet from the late Victorian period. Very well made in solid mahogany and decorated throughout with crisply carved detailing. The top, glazed, section is surmounted by a carved pediment with open fret-work paneling. The central glazed door opens to access a shelved interior affording ample display space. The base section has a single central cupboard flanked by two pairs of drawers. Both the glazed door and the cupboard door are lockable with the keys supplied. The cupboard door is decorated with an elaborate carved floral motif. Standing on elegant scrolling cabriole legs, the whole cabinet has style influences from the rococo period. Offered for sale in excellent original condition, ready to go straight into the home. It breaks down into two sections for ease of transportation. Dimensions: Width 121cms Depth 41cms Height 210cms
