Description

Elegant early 19th.c. mahogany pembroke supper table c.1830. Solid mahogany top with two folding leaves to seat four people. Unusually the legs are set wide enough to get a chair easily in between. Flame mahogany veneered apron with inlaid boxwood and ebony stringing, with a single drawer in one end. Raised on slim tapering square legs with matching inlays at the tops and brass castors. Quite a bit of old wear to the top – impressed marks which are only obvious when they catch the light. Generally very good colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: width 44"/24½", depth 31", height 29".
