Description

Activity in front of Notre Dame Cathedral by Maurice Fallières (French, 1883-1965.), an artist who specialised in Paris street scenes. His work was recently shown at the Musée de l'Ile de France/Chateau de Sceaux, alongside the likes of Caillebotte and Signac. Maurice Fallières studied with Francois Gall - it is said he left some of his paintings unsigned so as to create a doubt whether he, or Francois Gall had painted a certain artworks! Our painting however - an oil on paper mounted on to board by the artist himself - is signed at the lower right. Painted circa 1935-40, it measures 38 x 55 cm. The overall size with a vintage natural wood frame is 45 x 58 cm
