Description

~ French - Circa 1880 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A stunning original antique French boudoir clock by the renown maker Achille Brocot and retailed by the illustrious London firm of Charles Frodsham & Co. It is made of exquisite ormolu (finely gilded bronze) mounted with delicately painted Sèvres style porcelain. Porcelain is decorated with a pompadour rose pink background, the panel below the dial is delicately painted with a scene of a young couple in a country setting, he serenades her with a lute. Below this is a panel of floral swags musical instruments. The dial shows the couple again in a romantic country setting. Above the dial is a porcelain urn with ormolu handles and a pineapple finial. To the sides are floral swags and goddess masks. Please note that this style of clock does not have a glazed bezel over the dial or a rear door. The clock comes with its original gesso base. The French movement is by Achille Brocot and is of superb quality and is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. It is fitted with a dead-beat escapement and rack striking. Pendulum is a original. It runs for 8 days and st...
