Description

A very rare pair of very early knotted-pile saddle-bag faces, made by Shahsevan nomads during the early 19th century in the Moghan region of Azerbaijan. Although missing their flat-woven backs, these bagfaces are highly collectable in today's market-place. The beautiful, saturated natural colours are just magnificent and the wool is soft and glossy. Size: 53cm x 50cm (1' 9" x 1' 8").
