Description

Beautiful pair of Continental (probably French) hand painted porcelain cachepots with gilded brass mounts and stands. These are beautifully painted to a very high standard but appear to be un-marked. The gilded brass bases are also a lovely design and shape and are also of high quality. Both are in very good condition with no damage or repairs. Possibly Sevres. Bought from a local Perthshire Country Estate. SIZE; 4" diameter. 6" high CIRCA; 1840 - 1860
