Description

An exceptionally good sized 19th Century camphor wood brass bound campaign trunk with twin locks, complete with key, brass name plate (blank) and brass carrying handles. This superb trunk was made in Hong Kong by the renowned cabinet maker, Ah Foo and bears the label of this company. The grain and colour of the camphor wood are outstanding and the condition of the trunk is excellent. The interior, with removable tray, is very clean and offers superb storage. A very useful piece of furniture that would make a decorative coffee table or great storage facility in the home. c.1850 Width: 44.5" (113cm) Depth: 24" (61cm) Height: 24.5" (62cm)
