Antique Edwardian mahogany duet piano stool dating from around the 1890-1910 period, which could have many other uses besides in front of the piano. It's solid mahogany, in good condition & has just been re-polished & upholstered with a greyish cream fabric. There is plenty of storage inside & there is a metal contraption which can hold the seat up. This is also very sturdy, helped by the cross stretchers joining the spade end legs & also due to the fact that's is very well made.
