Description

A charming small antique Edwardian carved walnut drop leaf table. A highly decorative piece of antique furniture this occasional table stands on 4 turned legs united by four spindle gallery stretchers with brass and ceramic casters to the feet. It has four drop leaves which make it ideal as a card or games table. The top and flaps are all intricately carved with asian figures and scenes and the drop leaves are supported by push-out wooden supports. In good condition, with beautiful colour and figuring, the patina and carving is very unusual and the top almost appears like embossed leather at first sight. A stylish and small sized piece of furniture, in an aesthetic movement style. Chairs not included. Construction/Wood: walnut Condition Report: Solid and sturdy. Wear and marks commensurate with age. In good condition, with beautiful colour and figuring. A small section missing where flap meets table edge (see photo).
