An absolutely splendid French jewellery casket made from silver plate, retaining the original panels of cut glass. The box stands on four highly decorative feet with a grapevine decoration and the front having the most grand escutcheon housing the working key. The top is what makes this box a true gem, beautifully enamelled in a true Art Nouveau design, each corner finished with an enamelled Fleur de Lys motif. The box opens to reveal a professionally re-lined base with a plush velvet creating a clean and very usable casket.
