Description

Pierre Vernet (1797 - 1873) - Children and Horses By a Stream - Oil On Board - Signed and Dated 1854. Pierre Vernet (1797-1873), French painter, draughtsman. Studied under Achille-Etna Michallon at the Académie des beaux-arts in Paris (early 1820s). Worked in Russia (1835-73), where he witnessed the fire at the Winter Palace (1837) and painted commissions for the future Tsar Alexander II (1840s-60s). Contributed to the Paris Salon (1831-35) and the exhibitions of the Imperial Academy of Arts (1842, 1860-61, 1861-62). This particular picture is of major importance as it has been put in print and is still to this day. Highly sort after.
