Description

A very useful and attractive mahogany table. There is inlay around the edges of the table and a boxwood oval line on the top. It stands on 4 square tapering and splayed legs that are boxwood strung on each edge. The drawer is also inlaid. It is a stand alone piece with every side being polished (I have taken a photo of the back and sides) The lower tier is very useful as it tends to obscure wall sockets etc. It's a very good looking piece. 19th century 29" high (74cm) 21.5" wide (55cm) 17" deep (43cm)
