Description

A fine 'Grande Sonnerie' carriage clock in a gilt gorge case with a white enamel dial and bevelled gilt sight ring . This clock has been fully restored , dismantled , serviced and regulated . The clock is stamped G.L. in an oval and numbered 578 . E.G.Lamaille used the G.L stamp and was based in London (Farringdon Rd) and Paris .This fine clock also retains the original large silvered platform and jeweled lever escapement . Grande sonnerie striking , petite sonnerie and fully Silent if you wish . A very good large gorge case which feels reassuringly heavy and thick bevelled glass panels to all sides . Selection lever to the base . Circa 1900

Internal Ref: E.G.Lamaille
