Description

A highly decorative late Victorian period cheval mirror in faux bamboo. Of substantial size and standing well on a sturdy frame, the mirror itself hangs between the two upright poles, which are surmounted with finials. The mirror is fitted with its original beveled glass plate and is in excellent condition. The frame has a great colour and patina and is wobble-free. The legs terminate in their original brass castors for ease of positioning. A very stylish mirror offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home.
