Description

Antique Edwardian Mahogany Triple Wardrobe and dating from around 1900. Constructed from quality Mahogany it has a cornice top with contrasting satinwood band above a deep cross banded frieze edged with satinwood and with four carved and shaped fluted mounts. There is a full length bevelled mirrored door to the centre set within a mahogany frame with brass handle. This is flanked on either side by two doors each having quarter veneered panels and brass handles. Internally there is double hanging space with a rail and to one side there is a flight of five removable sliding tray drawers. To the base there are two deep drawers both of which are oak lined with brass handles and the whole standing on turned legs. The wardrobe separates into five pieces for ease of transporting. An excellent quality wardrobe.
