Description

An antique silver "quantième variés" calendar pocket watch by Adamir Sandoz and Auguste Meylan (A Sandoz-Bouchérin). The Meylan family is one of the oldest watchmaking dynasties in Switzerland, believed to have been started in 1670 by Moise Meylan in Le Lieu, Vallée de Joux. In 1890, Adamir Sandoz and Auguste Meylan became business partners and the company A Sandoz-Bouchérin was formed in 1894, although it seems the company was short lived. They specialised in chronographs, date watches, double hour watches, etc. This particular watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is stamped with the brevet number 1712 which relates to an 1889 patent for calendar clocks and watches in the name of Sandoz and Meylan. The movement is working nicely. The watch itself measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the loop. The case is 935 silver and there are Swiss hallmarks inside both of the case backs. There is some unevenness to the case commensurate with the age of the watch. The later acrylic lens is in good condition. The enamel dial has subsidiary dials for day, date and month, together with moonphase at 6 o'clock. Beautifully ...
