Description

Victorian serpentine inlaid walnut card table This is a fine example of a Victorian serpentine inlaid walnut card table. The serpentine shaped top in the best burr walnut, and then edged with amboyna cross banding. It has its original playing surface that is bordered with leather gilt tooling. (We have left this as it still looks good and shows its life and honourable scars. We will replace it for no extra cost if required) To each corner, this Victorian card table has an elegant cabriole leg with cast gilt brass mounts to the knees, matching moulding running down the front edge of the legs before ending with lovely gilt brass toes at the feet. The top swivels to reveal a polished storage section, and then opens on hinges to reveal the playing area. 94cms long (37ins) 54cms deep (21 1/4ins) 73cms high (28 3/4ins)
