SoldItem Reference: SA52998*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

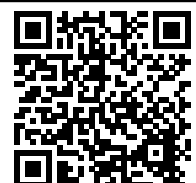

A very handsome hip flask with a detachable drinking cup. The glass flask has facets cut right around and is topped with a solid or sterling silver lid with a bayonet fitting requiring a twist and lift to open. The interior is lined with a cork filling, to help the precious contents from evaporating. The silver cup slides off and retains its gilded or gold washed interior, it fits nice and snugly to the glass. There are British silver hallmarks on both the cup and lid for Birmingham 1913 together with the makers mark C & C for Collins and Cook. Excellent condition without damage and measuring 5" tall x 2 3/8" wide. Item ID: 31011 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail, Insurance Optional.

Internal Ref: 31011
