Description

A superb Victorian solid silver scent bottle by top makers Sampson & Mordan. Attractive barley twist design and cut glass stopper within. Clearly hallmarked on the base and the inside of the lid for 1887. Finely engraved initials on the top. Excellent condition for its age. Some small nicks in the silver and light surface scratches but nothing detrimental. Hinges are in good order. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £5.
