Description

A lovely pair of very elegant George V sterling silver candlesticks, which have plain circular loaded bases with plain shaped columns. The Hall Marks indicate that they were both designed and manufactured by Marson & Jones in Birmingham in 1919, almost one hundred years ago. These two identical silver candlesticks are perfect to use. They will certainly add lustre to any dining table or drawing room side table. In common with most candlesticks of the period they are weighted for stability on the table. About the Date of Manufacture This splendid pair of antique silver candlesticks was designed and produced in the era of King George V just after the end of the Great War in 1919. Already one can see their stylish streamlined design ushering in the "flapper" years of Bright Young Things. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund.
