Description

A lovely Victorian Piano Stool made from stained beech with an upholstered seat. The stool stands on three carved legs and an ornate bulbous column with carved leaf decoration. The seat is stuffed and upholstered nicely in a dusty pink velvet with contrasting braid trim. The stool is adjustable in height and the seat spins to move it up or down. Height (at its lowest adjustable position) : 19 1/2" (50cm) Height (at its highest adjustable position) : 24" (60cm) Diameter of seat : 13" (33cm) It is in very good condition for its age. The upholstery is generally clean and free from any major wear and rips. It has faded slightly with age but the velvet looks very good. The revolving mechanism runs smoothly with very minimal give side to side and when extended upwards the stool is very stable. The wood has developed a nice aged patina and the grain is beautiful. It is free from any major knocks or splits and is overall a sturdy construction. There are some small marks and minor knocks around the base but nothing detrimental and it displays beautifully and is certainly a very usable piece. The best description comes from the pictures so please look at them all carefully an...
