Description

This antique early 19th century Pembroke table is made with beautifully figured solid mahogany. There is one long drawer and a dummy drawer having fine handles. The table is supported by four square turned legs on original castors. This antique Pembroke table is very versatile and can be used as an occasional dining table, breakfast table, centre table, writing table or lamp table. This Pembroke Table is in very good condition apart from a small crack in one of the flaps that is commensurate with its age. About the Date of Manufacture This Pembroke Table was manufactured in England in about 1840. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund of the purchase price less the return transport costs with an approved courier once an item is received by us in the same condition as it was originally dispatched. We look forward to being of ...
