Description

Exceptional quality mid-C19th Victorian period burr-walnut pedestal desk of practical proportions. Smart burr-walnut veneered 3-part pedestal desk of 9 drawers with an inset tooled green leather writing surface. Highly-figured and richly-coloured walnut veneers throughout and of free-standing form. The mahogany-lined drawers all with applied moulded edges and fitted with original twin turned-knob pulls and brass key escutcheons and locks by "Hobbs & Co. London". The pedestals raised on original castors set beneath the plinth bases. The desk divides into 3 parts for ease of movement and transportation. In excellent original condition with no damage, losses or repairs. The green gilt-tooled leather top being an old replacement which has achieved a good atmospheric patina of wear and use. Has been cleaned and waxed in our workshops, ready to use. Supplied with a working key for centre frieze drawer only. *NB. The list price is inclusive of VAT at the Standard Rate of 20% which could be reclaimed by a VAT Registered Company or deducted from the price for export to a country outside of the EU with proof of export certificate.
