Description

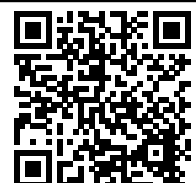

Dating from the early 19th Century, unusual this cast iron and brass fire surround was probably a salesman's sample. Depicting a fireplace in the classical style, this fire surround is decorated with acorns and oak leaves to the sides and the Royal coat of arms to the pediment. The fire back is cast with a large Tudor rose, obviously promoting a very patriotic theme. This antique cast iron surround is mounted on a wooden stepped base. The condition is good. A fabulous and decorative display piece. c.1820 Width: 13.3" (34cm) Depth: 3.75" (9.5cm) Height: 12.5" (32cm)
