Description

This table is in good condition. It is typical to the Victorian era being made from a lovely mahogany. It would look well in any old property for storage of sewing items or as a lamp / sofa table. The table stands on three lovely splayed feet with lovely carvings upon leading to a circular leg. The top is in good condition with a lift up lid that reveals all of the storage compartments for sewing materials etc. The height is 71cm, the width and depth is 45cm. We can deliver to most UK mainland postcodes for £60 using our courier.
