Description

A scarce find, this Victorian Betjemann's Patent single locking decanter or tantalus is made from cut crystal and trimmed in solid sterling silver fittings. The whisky decanter is beautifully cut and in undamaged condition. The fittings are fully hallmarked in numerous places for London 1898; the makers initials are also present for George Betjemann & Sons. The key is used to unlock the decanter allowing the stopper to be removed and a tippie poured. A superb and rare find in excellent condition. Spanning 5 1/2" including silver handle x 3 3/4" x 10" tall. Item ID: 40106 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
