Description

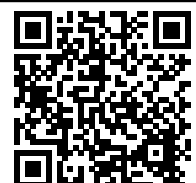

George III period mahogany hexagonal wine-cooler of good colour and patina; the cross-banded top inlaid with a narrow black-and-white boxwood chevron border and cable strung edges; on a fixed stand with a fluted frieze and tapered legs with fretted brackets and inlaid satinwood ovals at their feet. The interior divided into segments. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend every November. Open 9.00am – 5.00pm, Tuesday to Friday, 10.00am – 4.00pm on Saturday. A prior phone call or email before visiting is always a good idea and we are happy to be contacted outside of business hours.
