Description

Very fine mahogany bow-fronted stick barometer by Mackenzie & Swaggart, 15 Cheapside, London; the well-figured fully bow-fronted case with a shaped base, inlaid ebony flutes and an urn cistern-cover; surmounted by a scrolled pediment. Alexander Mackenzie worked at 15 Cheapside from 1811 to 1822 although the partnership with Mr Swaggart does not appear to be recorded. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend every November. Open 9.00am – 5.00pm, Tuesday to Friday, 10.00am - 4.00pm on Saturday. A prior phone call or email before visiting is always a good idea and we are happy to be contacted outside of business hours.
