Description

Late Georgian Scottish mahogany "country made" oblong tip-top tripod table. Quite a large size. The top is oblong in shape with rounded corners and is one piece of mahogany. The base has a nicely turned column with three shaped legs. The table has its original bearers underneath and original brass catch. The table is a very pleasing light colour from natural bleaching over the years and is in good condition for age. SIZE; 31 1/2" wide by 20" across by 28 1/2" high CIRCA; 1820 - 1840
