Description

A superb large Victorian cut glass scent bottle with solid silver threaded collar and top. The top has an attractive engraved scene of a boy between two trees and the bottle itself is superb quality cut glass with a hobnail design. Both the collar and the top are clearly hallmarked for J.S.B (John Septimus Beresford), London 1881. It is in good condition for its age. There are some small dinks in the silver top and the raised scene is slightly worn. There are no cracks or major damages to the glass however there are lots of minor surface chips around the bottle and one larger on the edge which i've photographed but overall it displays very well. The thread on the screw top is in good condition and it goes on smoothly. Approximate Measurements: Height : 5" (13cm) Width : 2 1/2" (6.5cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £5.
