Description

A 17th century mule chest dated 1692 with owners initial I.T and having a triple paneled front decorated with flowers, foliage and chip carving. At the bottom of the chest there is a large drawer decorated with wooden studs. The interior is lined with old newspaper from the 1840's, the hinges are later and the rear stiles have been repaired probably in the 19th century. This is a super looking chest and is in excellent condition.
