Description

Victorian inlaid walnut serpentine card table This Victorian inlaid walnut serpentine card table is of a wonderful light golden colour. The serpentine top has lovely inlaid motifs to all four corners and joined by a single box wood stringing. When you lift the top to open, it swings round to reveal a polished storage section under the top, this is to store card and gaming counters. Once opened you have the green baize playing surface (renewed). The underframe consists of a pair of end supports joined by a turned and carved pole stretcher. The end supports, again are made with solid walnut, each turned and with a lovely carved bulbous with Irish carving. Off each of these are a pair of cabriole legs that are also carved and end with magnificent scroll toes with its original rolling castors under. This example of a Victorian walnut card table is so much better than you are ever likely to find. 96.5cms wide (38ins) 51cms deep (20ins) 74cms high (29ins) UK mainland delivery £60+vat
