Description

Georgian oak north country dresser with rack This Georgian oak north country dresser with rack would have been first made circa 1820. The base fitted with 3 drawers along the top and dummy drawers running down the middle. Having a cupboard to each end with a fitted shelf. To each corner there are fluted stylised columns below a fruitwood diamond shaped inlay. The rack above, with green painted backboards, and 3 display shelves. This dresser comes into 2 parts (base and rack), this allows easy movement into and around the home. The style of this dresser has many characteristics of one made in the North country, probably Lancashire. 147cms wide (57 3/4ins) 46cms deep (18ins) 192cms high (75 3/4ins) UK mainland delivery £60+vat
