Description

Francis, (Frank) O. A. Haviland , d. 1912 Portrait of Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree (1852-1917) Signed/Inscribed: "Beerbohm Tree as John Jasper/ His Majesty's Theatre/ Jan 6th 1908" and further signed " Frank Haviland" pencil , charcoal and monochrome wash on card 33 x 22.50 cm. (13 x 9 in.) Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree, [real name Herbert Draper Beerbohm] (1852–1917), actor and theatre manager, was born on 17 December 1852 at 2 Pembridge Villas, Kensington, London, the second of the four children of Julius Ewald Beerbohm (1810–1892) and his wife, Constantia Draper. His father, a London corn merchant, was German-Lithuanian and his mother was British. Sir Henry Maximilian (Max) Beerbohm was his youngest half-brother, from his father's second marriage. Beerbohm received his education at various schools in England, including Mrs Adams's Preparatory School at Frant, Dr Stone's school in King's Square, Bristol, and Westbourne collegiate school in Westbourne Grove, London; he then attended the school where his father had been educated, Schnepfeuthal College in Thuringia, Germany. At the age of eighteen he joined his father's business, but he spent his free hours performing with ...
