Description

Matching pair of high-quality Edwardian period inlaid figured rosewood music cabinets. Smart pair of highly-figured rosewood single glazed-door cabinets originally designed to store sheet music. The bevel glass doors each enclosing velvet plush lined shelves and polished interior, the adjustable shelves still with original tasseled edge finish and some with original 'ivory' or bone labels. The doors each fitted with a brass handle with a wrought iron ring design. The serpentine outline tops each with a moulded edge and fitted with a three-quarter gilded cast-brass pierced gallery. The centre with an inlaid box-wood and bone motif. The doors each with an inlaid design of wreathed musical instruments in box-wood and bone detail to panels top and bottom of glazing. The edges, tops and sides with inlaid bone or ivory stringing line detail. Each cabinet raised on ogee-section bracket feet and fitted with original castors beneath. Useful and decorative pair of cabinets which would lend themselves to various uses. Excellent clean condition with no damage or losses. Have been cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops.
