Description

Large, Very Heavy 17th Century Louis XIV French Cast Iron Fire Back This is a large and very heavy piece (best estimate 200kgs) the iron has a central scene of Abraham offering the sacrifice of Issac, this scene is set in a roundel and it is flanked by phoenix rising from the bottom This is a very rare piece, it came from a chateau in France, it has probably been there all of its life, it is rectangular in shape. The plaque shows signs of its 300 years of age but it is sound and there have are no repairs This delightful piece will serve well in an Inglenook or similar fireplace, a plan to install it will be required it takes several people to lift it The Fire back is an original piece and in sound used condition, it is 45" wide and 35" high and 2" thick in places CE33 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option.
