Description

Fantastic French solid oak Buffet sideboard, or dresser base, circa 1800. Lovely faded oak colour and with simple carved door, fluted corner columns and plenty of old age character. Great storage piece with the two doors opening up to a shelved interior. The Buffet has been cleaned and beeswaxed polished, but I will continue with this to build the layers further! The internal shelf has been replaced at some point as you can see. Original hinged and door brasses, also with the original working lock and key. Great value for such a useful and decorative piece of French provincial furniture, lots of uses, I have one as a drinks cabinet! Measurements: 41 1/2" or 106cm high, 56 1/2" or 144cm wide, 21" or 53cm deep. No problem to arrange a delivery for you, usually around £75 as this is a good size piece...But, please send me your postcode if you are remote or coastal as it can alter the price. Or you are very welcome to come and view and collect from me here in Uppingham, Rutland.
