Description

A charming tabletop linen press table dating from the late 19th Century. It is made from oak with a single drawer with a turned wooden handle. The press has a wooden winding handle and large wooden screw. It is a simple design which has created a beautiful and tactile piece of furniture. It is in good condition throughout and is strong and sturdy. There are some signs of use and age but overall is a very clean and honest piece of furniture. There is a small chip near the handle and there are some signs of historic worm which have been treated as a precaution and haven't affected the piece structurally or aesthetically. It has been given a clean and a wax and is ready for use or display. Approximate Measurements: Height (screwed down) : 31" (79cm) Width : 26" (66cm) Depth : 14 1/2" (37cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
