Description

This is a beautiful antique Victorian sterling silver dish with blue glass liner measuring 4" (10 cms) across x 2 1/4" (6 cms) high to the rim. The silver is absolutely lovely showing scenes of cows laying in fields and being milked surrounded by trees and flowers - the silver alone weighs 154.8 grams. It's hallmarked for London 1874 with the silversmiths mark for George Lambert and is also marked underneath 'Lambert, Coventry St, London'. The whole item is in excellent condition and was probably originally made as a butter dish. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
