Description

A Fine quality mahogany cased deck watch chronometer by Ulysse Nardin, Le Locle & Genève, No. 3018, circa 1937. An excellent item by the eminent Swiss makers, most probably made for a luxury yacht. The brass-bound three-tier mahogany case with brass maker's label to the top and numbered to the front, original velvet lined, nickel plated hinges and original hand set key, all in excellent original condition. The 2¾" silvered and engraved dial with Roman chapters, blued steel spade hands, 56-hour power reserve indicator below the XII, signed to the centre 'ULYSSE NARDIN LOCLE & GENÈVE', with seconds subsidiary and numbered in red '3018' within the circle. The fully serviced three-quarter plate gilt movement with maker's mark and No. 3018, with Earnshaw's spring detent escapement, compensated cut bi-metallic balance, with Breuget blued steel spring and regulator, fully jewelled to the centre arbor. Cased within a polished brass bowl, with screwed bevelled glass front cover and hand nut at the rear for winding. A beautiful item in excellent original condition with the movement fully serviced and rated to the highest standard by our horologist who is a Fellow of the Brit...
