Description

A fine quality late 19th Century cylinder bureau by Jas Shoolbred of London. Very well constructed in solid mahogany with attractive flame mahogany veneers and decorated with inlaid satinwood stringing and banding throughout. The superstructure has an arrangement of 3 drawers and the top is surmounted by a galleried surround. The bureau itself opens to reveal a fitted interior with a leather writing surface, pigeon holes, a pen tray and stationary drawers. Beneath this is another collection of 3 drawers. All drawers are fitted with their original brass handles. Standing on elegant tapering legs which terminate in spade feet. This superior quality bureau is offered for sale in excellent condition. It has a great colour and patina and is ready to go straight into the home or office. Dimensions: Width 92cms Depth 54cms Height 111cms James Shoolbred & Co The name of James Shoolbred & Co is highly respected among admirers of Aesthetic Movement furniture. Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931.
